

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

FOR MORE INFORMATION:

John Yuhanick
410-338-0700

MEDIA ALERT

PRESIDENT OF INVESTORS UNITED TO SPEAK AT HARFORD AND HOWARD COMMUNITY COLLEGES

Ian Charles Parrish, President of the Investors United School of Real Estate, has just announced that in the coming months he will be speaking at both the Harford and Howard Community Colleges. Parrish is a real estate entrepreneur and has instructed over 1,000 students at his school, which is the first in the nation to specialize in investment real estate. In his speaking engagements, Parrish will touch on some of the principles taught at the Investors United School. Here are the dates, locations, and topics for Parrish's upcoming engagements:

When: Tuesday, October 3 from 6:30-8:30pm
Where: Harford Community College, Havre de Grace Hall, Room 208
Topic: "The $100,000 Real Estate Formula"

When: Thursday, October 5 from 6:30-8:30pm
Where: Harford Community College, Havre de Grace Hall, Room 208
Topic: "The $100,000 Real Estate Formula"

When: Monday, January 29 from 7:00-9:00pm
Where: Howard Community College at Oakland Mills High School
Topic: "The $100,000 Real Estate Formula"

When: Monday, February 9 from 7:00-9:00pm
Where: Howard Community College at Oakland Mills High School
Topic: "FREEhabbing: Fun and Profit in Urban Development"

For more information on these speaking engagements or to book Ian or another representative from Investors United, please contact John Yuhanick Associates at 410-338-0700.

About Investors United School of Real Estate

Serving as the nation's first and only school with a full, in-depth curriculum that includes a complete education of successful real estate investing, Investors United School of Real Estate was established in 1980 by Charles Parrish. Currently, Investors United members invest over $10,500,000 each year.